Crime Prevention & Business Watch Program Starts in Lexington Park

The St. Mary's Community Development Corporation (CDC) and the St. Mary's Sheriff's Department have partnered to better secure area business in Lexington Park, MD. This partnership has led to the creation of the B-Alert Program.

The B-Alert Program will allow business located in Lexington Park to be in direct communication with the Sheriff's Office to address crime concerns or activities in and around your business. The B-ALERT Program will rely on collaboration between area businesses and the St. Mary's County Sheriff's Department to reduce crime and the fear of crime in Lexington Park.

B-Alert communications from the St. Mary's County Sheriff's Department will come directly to participating businesses via a fax or email. These notices will inform participating businesses of any recently reported activities and will provide up-to-the minute advisements designed to protect business from scams or other reported criminal activities.

Businesses located in Lexington Park that wish to participate in the B-Alert Program, should contact Courtney Franklin, Economic Development Coordinator at 301-475-4200, ext. 1408. Your contact information will be added to the list and maintained by the Sheriff's Office. You will then receive B-Alert notices as they are issued.
