St. Mary's County Government COVID-19 Updated Operational Status
Effective March 25, 2020

LEONARDTOWN, MD – St. Mary's County Government Operations will return to Pandemic Response Level 2 operational status in accordance with Maryland Governor Lawrence J. Hogan's March 23, 2020 executive order stating that the closure of any federal, state or local government unit, building or facility is not required.

Public access to St. Mary's County Government buildings is by appointment only. Appointment requests should be made through county department websites or, for a complete list of department appointments, visit <http://www.stmarysmd.com/Appointments>.

For matters not requiring an appointment, citizens are encouraged to direct all requests for information or services to St. Mary's County departments by phone at 301-475-4200.
